To Whom It May Concern,

It's been a genuine pleasure getting to know and work with Charles Allen and The SafeBridge Group, P.C. First of all, I've come to know Charles as an exceptionally genuine person who deeply cares about others.... and works exhaustively for his clients. In fact, I'm not sure I've ever met a more passionate nor ardent 'client advocate' than Charles! Furthermore, I know that Charles always conducts all of his business affairs with the highest degree of integrity.

I can attest that Charles has been able to brilliantly assemble the very 'best in breed' providers in America (who've contracted with The SafeBridge Group) who specialize in delivering bottom-line savings to businesses by reducing expenses on essential services. These include cumulative monthly utility costs, natural gas expenses, wireless expenses, waste haul expenses, etc. As well, Charles has some of the nation's leading (but little known) tax savings solutions which deliver major cash flow to business owners all over the Southeast, U.S. - as well as the nation.

I would recommend that any savvy business owner take advantage of The SafeBridge Group's portfolio of risk-free, savings-generating solutions which further increase company bottom-lines!

Respectfully,

Tim Pheifer
