

September 7, 2017

Charles Allen and his excellent team (now SafeBridge Benefits Group) have been successfully handling our employer / employee benefits package for years, and have demonstrated superior performance versus that of any other provider group with whom we've ever previously partnered.

They've also helped deliver valuable savings to our company's bottom-line, by offering superior benefits at lower price points than the others. Last but not least, they've exhibited the highest degree of upstanding character to our ownership, executive management and entire work force at all times!

Charles has also been of very valuable service to my family and me with some of my own personal financial matters.

Sincerely,

Al Cason
